"MONKEES & YOU"

UP, UP AND AWAY! FLY OFF TO MONKEE-LAND ONCE AGAIN WITH 16's EDITOR GLORIA STAVERS – AND FIND OUT WHAT'S REALLY GOING ON BEHIND THE SCENES WITH DAVY, MIKE, PETER AND MICKY (WHO'S GOTTA GROOVY SECRET OR TWO TO SHARE WITH YOU)!!

WOULD YOU like to see how a Monkees TV program is put together from beginning to end? Seems like a great idea, doesn't it? Well, that is exactly what 16 is going to show you—so come along on a visit to Studio 7 and find out what really goes on "behind the scenes!"

Before you can get to Studio 7 you have to pass the security gate, and that is not easy to do. Seeing a cluster of teenage girls already gathered at the gate doesn't do much to boost your morale, either! But today you are lucky—for you are traveling with 16 and your name is registered with the guard.

Just as the guard admits you to the lot, a "madman" comes cavorting down the street! No, it's not a madman—it's Micky Dolenz! Micky comes up to you and takes your hand.

"So you're our guest today," he says. "Well, come along—cos you are going to be busy, busy, busy!"

MICKY "THE DIRECTOR"

Before you can utter a word, Micky hurriedly explains the set is closed today to everyone (except you) because he is directing his first Monkee segment.

Sammy & Micky.

"MONKEES & YOU"

"It isn't easy at all," Micky says. "First, I got this idea for The Frodis Caper, then one of the regular writers, David Evans, and I wrote the script and submitted it."

Not only was Micky's story accepted, but he was also asked if he would like to direct it. That meant that in addition to his writing chore, he would be directing and performing in The Caper—quite a heavy workload for a busy Monkee to take on!

Micky also explains to you that actual filming takes place on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, but that he has to consult with the set designers, Gene Ashman (who does costumes), casting director Paul Young, and story editor Neil Buriston. In other words, a good many plans have to be made before the actual shooting starts.

MICKY'S "SECRET MARRIAGE"

Suddenly, a lovely girl with long brownish-blonde hair appears. You recognize her immediately. She is Samantha Juste. Sammy and Micky have a hurried, whispered conversation as you politely stand aside. Then Micky introduces you to Sammy, who smiles and disappears—leaving you with a warm and friendly impression.

As if reading your mind, Micky says, "Hey, I know there are marriage rumors about Sammy and me. It's no secret that she and I have been dating for quite a while. I have tried to keep my private life private but, on the other hand, I feel that fans who care enough to want to know ought to understand that Sammy means a lot to me—"

He smiles and doesn't finish the sentence. You feel sort of relieved that Micky has confided in you, and you know in your heart that whatever he decides to do will be best for him and his lovely girl friend—and there is no need for anyone to be angry or jealous about Micky's "mystery marriage."

Next, Micky escorts you into Studio 7. It is very dark, but soon you get your bearings and you feel as though you are in an enormous warehouse full of various sets. You recognize some of them right away.

First, Micky introduces you to Rip Taylor, who plays a mad scientist in The Frodis Caper, and you spend the rest of the afternoon watching with fascination as Micky goes about approving wardrobes and helping to arrange the sets. When you leave, Micky walks outside with you and says, "I am a little nervous. I guess you can see that. Do you realize that tomorrow I have got to direct Davy, Peter and Mike in a whole show? Wow—I hope I'll be good!" He gives you a peck on the cheek and tells you to be on the set bright and early the next day.

"Hullo, luv—"

"Lights! Camera! Action!"

THE HODGE-PODGE

The next morning you are back on the Screen Gems lot in plenty of time to join the fun. Before you meet the Monkees, the security guard introduces you to Sally Field, who just happens to be on her way to The Flying Nun set. Then you see a very good-looking boy and you can't help asking, "Who is he?" So the guard introduces you to Bobby Sherman (remember him from Shindig?), and you are delighted to learn that Bobby is doing a pilot for next season called Here Come The Brides.

Suddenly Micky appears, greets you and introduces you to Stu Phillips—music director of the Monkees—and Jon Anderson, the assistant director. Before you can turn around you are back on Stage 7 again. The excitement has really mounted now and full production is about to begin.

"I want you to meet a friend of mine," you hear Micky's voice saying. You turn, and standing before your eyes is Davy Jones—in pajamas!

"Hullo," says David winningly. "Don't be shocked, luv, the pajamas are part of the show. See, everybody has them on." And Davy points to Peter and Mike, who have on similar attire.

You are delighted to discover that Peter is as charming

Lippy & Micky.

"Ouch! He's heavy!"

"Don't dare drop him!"

in person as he is on the show, and that Mike is much more friendly and talkative than you ever dreamed he'd be. Mike even introduces you to his dog "Frack", who is on the set with him that day.

Micky has disappeared, and all at once you hear a voice shouting from the top of the studio. You look up—and there stands Micky on the catwalk with an electric megaphone in his hand! For the next few hours everything seems hodge-podge. Lights go on and off, lines are read—and the camera does several "takes". Soon, it becomes clear that everyone is working very hard and that a Monkees segment is being put together right before your eyes. And though everyone is busy, they are still warm and friendly, making sure that you have a soda pop to drink and that you can see and share in everything that is going on.

MICKY ON THE DOUBLE

The following day there is more of the same, except it is even more hectic and more fun because the boys are shooting outside—attired in groovy black outfits. Davy and Mike keep carrying Peter around—and Micky keeps carrying an enormous potted plant around!

"Here's what happens," Micky explains. "I come over by this camera and check everything out for the take, and then I run back and appear in the actual scene. Watch!"

And you do—spellbound—as the Monkees' favorite cameraman Lippy Lipschitz does the actual filming, and you watch your favorite guys go through the ups and downs (literally!) getting The Frodis Caper "in the can."

PARTY TIME

The last day of the Monkees filming is usually over at 7 A.M., but Micky has done his job so well that he completes his day's work three and a half hours ahead of schedule! When the filming is wrapped up, there is a mighty roar from Micky Dolenz.

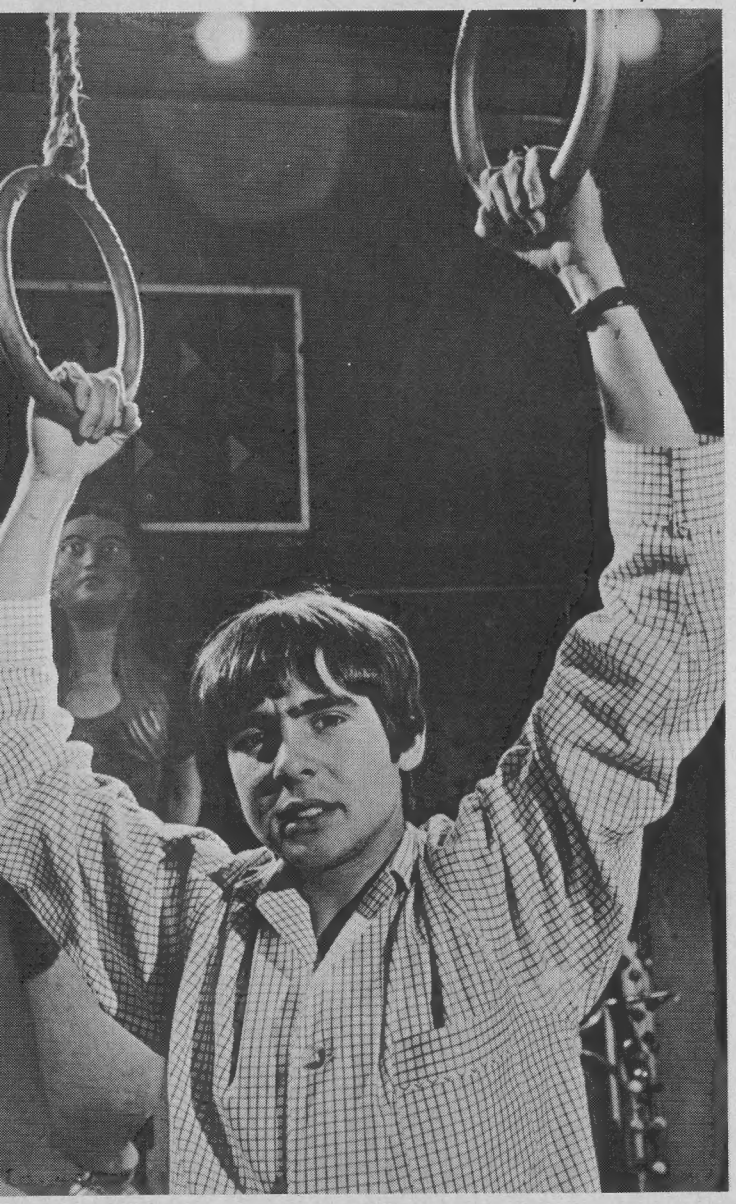
"Party time!" he shouts—and everybody pours back into Studio 7. A gigantic crowd seems to appear from nowhere, and there are plenty of Cokes and coffee for one and all. Now, everyone is in a slappy-happy, silly mood. You watch Davy pull a few practical jokes on Peter—and then Peter pull a few on Davy! Phyllis comes in and Mike introduces you to her. Needless to say, Sammy joins the festivities too, and you really feel like one of the gang.

NEXT ON DECK—PETER!

The days have flown by and now it is all over and it's time for you to go. Micky and Davy see you to the gate. Before you leave, Davy confides in you, "Micky has to work late tonight, screening all the footage we have done. And then he has to help with the cutting. We will all be tucked in and sound asleep tonight before he finishes his working day."

You are filled with amazement at the marvelous talents of the hard-working Monkees, and with gratitude to each of them—Micky, Peter, Davy and Mike—for the enormous amount of time and energy they so willingly give to make The Monkees your favorite TV show. As you are about to drive away, Peter comes out of the studio, waving his arms. "Hey, stay tuned!" he shouts. "I am going to direct a show for you soon!"

"A-one, a-two, and—"



"—a-three!"

YES, THAT'S RIGHT. Next month "Monkees & You" will visit with PETER TORK as he turns director. Well, we'll save that big surprise! Be sure to get the May issue of 16 Magazine. It goes on sale March 19.

SAMMY'S BEAUTY SECRETS

If you're troubled by the way you look, and you don't know what to do about it, read Samantha Juste's helpful tips on how to make yourself over into a whole NEW YOU—every month in 16 starting right here!

ADORABLE Samantha Juste is not only a successful television personality in London; she's also a top model. Unlike most models, Sammy clings to the natural look—exactly the kind of look that makes most boys go ga-ga over a girl. (Well, it worked with Micky Dolenz—didn't it?)

Samantha has decided to write a regular column in 16 giving you the inside dope on her beauty secrets, plus answering questions about anything you might want to ask her about beauty. But first things first. Lend an ear while Sammy reveals her make-up beauty secrets to you.

Before you put on your make-up, you should be sure that your face is spotlessly clean. Actually, skin care should be number one on your beauty list, and make-up should be number two. Eating lots of fresh fruit and green vegetables is the best prescription I can give you to make sure that you have a healthy, glowing skin. That, combined with fresh air, exercise and cleanliness will help you to have skin that looks groovy and smooth, instead of rough and pimply.

For everyday, I wear as little make-up as possible. This means that I rub a dab of hand lotion on my face and when it is dry, I dust a tiny bit of powder over the shiny parts. I use a minimum amount of mascara, and my final touch is a layer of lip gloss.

However, if you are going to a party or a special event, you may want to look "soopa" and wear a bit more face make-up. For these special occasions, here's what I do:

First, I apply Max Factor medicated foundation all over my face and neck (be sure to pick the color that properly blends with your skin tone). Next, I press a little Creme Puff powder over my shiny spots, and then I dust a little Blush On over the hollows of my cheek bones in order to hide them.

The next step is eye make-up. I use powdered white eyeshadow on my upper eyelids and then draw on an eye-line with a dark green pencil. (You have to experiment with eye-line colors and find which is best for you). If you like false eyelashes, I suggest that you use Eye-Lure. I find them easiest to handle. I brush Revlon Fibrelash Mascara on my top and bottom lashes, and then I lightly pencil in my eyebrows where necessary. The very last thing I do is put on my lip gloss.

Taking off make-up is just as important as putting it on. It should be done carefully and thoroughly. I use Max Factor cleansing cream and skin freshener to remove my make-up. If you have oily skin, I suggest that you also use an astringent. Last of all, the most important facial beauty advice I can give you is to keep your face clean, enjoy a sensible diet, and get plenty of sleep and fresh air.

See you next month, when I'll tell you how I take care of my hair. The May issue of 16 goes on sale March 19.

DO YOU HAVE some personal questions that are crying for an answer? Do you need heartfelt advice from someone who knows and cares? Do you feel that there is no one that you can turn to or trust? If you answer yes to all of these questions, please don't despair — because Sonny and I are really here and we really are going to help you. Each month we carefully read your mail and pick out a cross-section of the most important questions that you ask. If your answer is not here in this issue, keep looking — because sooner or later we will get around to you and your problem.

DEAR CHER...

FRIENDLESS

Dear Cher,

Just a quick note to tell you how much your column means to me. I can tell that you really care about your readers' problems. My parents don't care how I feel about things and I have very few friends. It's nice to know that somebody cares!

Unwanted

Braymer, Mo.

• Dear Unwanted,

I'm very glad that you like our column. Sonny and I do care very much about the problems of our readers. It is a frustrating feeling not to be able to answer each and every letter (and they arrive by the thousands) with a personal reply. We feel very close to our many readers and (hopefully) helping you to solve your problems makes us feel good. I'm sure that your parents care a lot more than you think, but don't hesitate to turn to us for help and advice.

CRADLE-ROBBER?

Dear Cher,

I am a 16-year-old high school junior, and I've got an all-out crush on a freshman boy. He is one of the best-looking guys I've ever seen, and I have the feeling that he likes me too. I'm afraid to talk to my girl friends about it, because I know they'll just laugh at me. Is it natural for a 16-year-old girl to be interested in a 14-year-old boy?

Scared

Liberty, N.C.

• Dear Scared,

In this willy-nilly day and age we live in, it is very hard to define what is "natural" and what is not. If you have a special feeling about this boy, and the two of you "hit it off," I doubt that your friends will laugh at you. Most people recognize the truth when they see it. If this boy is as good-looking as you say he is, they might even be a little jealous. Two years difference in age is not as big an obstacle as you think it is. If you are sure of your feelings—go ahead! That's natural!

TINY-TOT

Dear Cher,

Help! I'm a 15-year-old girl with a height problem. I'm only four feet and eleven inches tall! Can you give me any tips on what to wear (or not to wear)? I am very self-conscious about my appearance.

Teeny

Garden Grove, Calif.

• Dear Teeny,

Try to stay away from ruffles, wide belts, polka-dots and big fluffy hair-dos. They will only accentuate your lack of height. Stick to vertical stripes, fitted slacks, non-heavy sweaters, V-necks, narrow belts and narrow, pleated skirts. Have you read 16's Beauty And Popularity Book? It examines in depth many problems of this nature and offers some excellent solutions. See next page.

DEAR SONNY...

NOT A QUITTER

Dear Sonny,

Most of my buddies have dropped out of high school and I take quite a lot of "ribbing" from them because I keep going. They say I'm a "goody-goody" and that dropping out is the "in" thing to do. Is an education important anymore, or am I wasting my time?

Student

LaFayette, Ind.

• Dear Student,

I think that an education is more important than ever. It seems as if a great many young people follow current trends and don't listen to themselves. There are more young people in the world today than ever before—and some of them have a very unrealistic attitude towards the problems of the day. The only way to cure the ills that can be found in our society is by examining the problems—and then having the technical knowledge to do something about them. Remember: it takes a lawyer to change a law, a doctor to battle a disease, and a scientist to help us understand the many mysteries in the world we live in. These professions (and most of the important professions in the world) require an education. Don't drop out—drop in! Stick to it! If just a little knowledge can go a long way—think what a lot of knowledge can do!

That's it for now. If you have a personal problem of any nature, just write to us at the address below and we will try to help you. Our address is:

LOVE IS—

BY THE BUCKINGHAMS

WHAT IS LOVE? There are as many answers as there are people who ask the question, and every answer—no matter how it differs from every other answer—is the truth. Because love is all things to all people. Here the Buckinghams give their answers, each in his own way. Perhaps you'll find the key to your own feelings in their words. If not, don't be concerned. When you fall in love, you won't need to seek the answer to the question What is Love? You'll know.

CARL GIAMARESE

Love is—a feeling I get inside. It never happens overnight with me. It usually happens gradually. When I first meet a girl, I might be just physically attracted, then—as I get to know her better—there are many more attractions. Like kindness and understanding.

Real love is a "give and take" thing, and we must accept one another for what we are. There is so much more to love than love itself. You have to get along with each other and be able to cope with any kind of problem that arises together. Love is also trust in one another. Once you find love, and you both feel the same way, it has to be the greatest thing that can ever happen to you.

MARTY GREBB

Love is—something that is first found within a person. The reason love is heart-felt is all the good both of the people involved found and invested in it. You may find a kind of love in every thought, work or action there is—and the feeling you may get from the thought can leave you at a loss for any work or action.

To give love is to understand it, want it and not hesitate to reach out for it. It is to love love—and that is the happiest state of all.

NICK FORTUNE

Love is—a mental and physical attraction between two people. There is no one else you care about more than the one you love. No matter how far away your loved one is, you still think about that person as though he—or she—were right beside you. You develop a need for this person—for affection, attention, companionship, advice and so on.

One of the grooviest things about love is that you share all things—happiness, sadness . . . just about everything!

JON-JON

Love is—one of the few things in life that cannot be truly put into words. Love is a feeling, an emotion. When you are in love, you can feel love all over you from the time you wake 'til the time you go to sleep—and even in your dreams.

All people are different, and so are all loves. When people meet love, they accept it in different ways. Love is filled with happiness and sometimes with unhappiness. The greatest thing about love is—to enjoy it, you don't have to be pretty or rich or anything very special. Everyone falls in love at least once in a lifetime.

DENNY TUFANO

Love is—one of the most exciting experiences two people can ever share. When two people feel a great need to be with each other—not only going places together, but being mentally aware of each other's feelings—they sense the excitement of this mutual mental-physical embrace. Happiness must prevail to insure love. Love itself is kind of lazy—it needs a small push with such things as understanding and respect.

Love isn't the colorful, flashing lights on television. It's an exchange of human feelings—much more beautiful than flashing lights . . . Don't you agree?

MY PERFECT GIRL by the GRASSROOTS

CREED BRATTON

I have always dug girls with big blue eyes and brown hair. I like girls with pixie looks, but I like for them to be vivacious and bubbly. My ideal girl must enjoy listening to music and like to discuss books. Since I love playing my guitar, she must realize that she is not in competition with my music. She should fit easily into a group of friends who come over to talk and play music.

My girl would have to be fond of dogs—I have 13 puppies running around the house! One thing I like to do quite often is take the other dogs for a run along the beach. (No, I don't take the puppies—not yet, anyway). I want a girl who enjoys outdoor sports. It doesn't matter if she can't cook—there's always a Chicken Delight nearby!

RICK COONCE

I may joke and kid around a lot, but the girl who wins me over must understand my many moods. I love girls with long black hair and piercing blue eyes. If a girl is around five feet and eight inches tall, she is really perfect for me. A girl I flip for is a girl who is funny when I'm feeling funny.

However, I once went steady with a girl who was very unlike any of the things I have just mentioned. She was introverted and she was different—so I guess I can't really describe my perfect girl until I meet her.

I like a girl who appreciates the little things I dig doing the most—such as opening the car door for her, or anticipating the things that she may want or need before she realizes it herself (and have them ready for her!). When I really like a girl, I like to please her every whim. I like to be needed!

WARREN ENTNER

At this point in my life, I have no thoughts of getting married. I like all kinds of girls and date often—but never steady. It doesn't really matter to me what color hair or eyes a girl has. There are other qualities far more important.

My girl would have to learn to adjust to my sudden changes of moods. I like a girl who can cook. My mother is a great cook, so I really appreciate a good home-cooked meal. Movies are my biggest hang-up and a girl must enjoy going to the flicks with me. She must also enjoy football games, and love to go swimming in the ocean.

She must be a good listener, because many times I enjoy talking about my trip to Greece—and it's groovy if she understands why I want to go back there. I have strong impulses, and if I suddenly want to go to an art gallery—I want her to share that feeling with me and come along!

ROB GRILL

I am pretty set in my likes and dislikes, but it's still difficult to describe what a perfect girl is to me. I'm partial to girls with dark blue eyes and I think black hair is real groovy—to me, it's a perfect combination. I think five feet and six inches is a good height for a girl. I like it when a girl has an outgoing personality, but she must not be overpowering. If she shares my interests, that's great! But I don't mind if a girl has her own ideas and ways. More than anything, I love to go fishing—there isn't anything more relaxing to me. If a girl likes to fish, it sure brings us closer.

She must be unselfish and domestically inclined. I love cooking for myself and I invent some pretty wild recipes. I think it would be nice to teach a girl the kind of cooking I like. Since I work late hours so often, I like a girl who would prefer to spend a quiet evening.

RIDE WITH THE RAT PATROL

EACH WEEK four far-out guys ride their leaping jeeps through the desert sands of Africa and plague Rommel's Afrika Korps with their hit-and-run tactics. They are the stars of ABC-TV's exciting World War II adventure series The Rat Patrol. Let's meet them.

CHRISTOPHER GEORGE plays the head Rat, Sgt. Sam Troy. Christopher was born in Royal Oaks, Mich., and is of Greek descent. He spoke Greek before he learned to speak English, and he gained his first acting experience by appearing in presentations of classical Greek dramas. After high school, he joined the Marine Corps, where he became an expert on firearms and judo. After his discharge, he completed his education at the University of Miami and tried his hand at several jobs before going all-out for acting. Rat Patrol is Christopher's first lead in a series. He likes to go skin-diving, write, paint and listen to good jazz in his spare time. He plans to move into the Beverly Hills area when The Rat Patrol returns from location in Spain.

GARY RAYMOND plays second in command, Sgt. Jack Moffitt. Gary was born in Brixton, England, and is the son of two English music hall entertainers (his father still works in films in England). At the age of 11, he won a scholarship to the Gateway School and stayed there until he was 16. He joined the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts at the age of 18. Gary starred in many films and stage shows before landing his role in Rat Patrol. He is six feet and two inches tall, weighs 175 pounds and has dark brown hair and hazel eyes. He lives in London and is married to actress Delena Kidd. They have two children, three-year-old Matthew and one-year-old Sophie. Gary's special interests include reading, playing chess, collecting antiques, playing bridge and just relaxing.

LAWRENCE CASEY plays jeep driver Pvt. Mark Hitchcock. Larry was born in New York City, the second of eight children—seven boys and a girl—in the family of William Leonard and Florence Casey. He wanted to be a professional baseball player, but the death of his father put an end to this dream. Larry had to help support his family and that kept him too busy to practice. After high school, he worked as a construction worker and began to lift weights and box in his spare time. He set his sights on an acting career in 1959 and landed a part in a Broadway play. After a hitch in the army, several TV appearances and much dramatic study, Larry landed his current role in Rat Patrol. Larry is six feet tall, weighs 170 pounds, and has blond hair and blue eyes. His hobbies are tennis, painting and chess, and he lives in Hollywood with his wife, Katha, and daughter Melissa.

JUSTIN TARR plays jeep driver Pvt. Tully Pettigrew. Justin was born in Amarillo, Texas. When he was nine his family moved to a cattle ranch near Black Forest, Colorado, where he was given a quarter horse to train, learned to handle a lariat and began to rope everything on the ranch. At 13, Justin entered a local rodeo and was badly thrown by a horse. That ended his career as a cowboy. He attended St. Mary's High School in Colorado Springs, where he excelled in shot-putting, javelin, discus throwing, boxing, basketball, football and weight-lifting. After a year of college, a fling at flying school and many odd jobs, Justin flew to New York City and enrolled in the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. He was signed for his role in Rat Patrol in 1965 and moved to Hollywood. He is six feet and one inch tall, weighs 175 pounds, and has blond hair and brown eyes.

You can write to any or all of The Rat Patrol c/o ABC-TV Center, Hollywood 27, Calif. (Be sure to put "I Am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.)

SAJID
—KISS HIS TEARS AWAY

WHEN A BOY AND A GIRL SHARE A SPECIAL KISS, IT WILL TURN THE SADDEST FROWN UPSIDE DOWN—AND MAKE IT INTO A VERY SPECIAL SMILE. TRY IT AND SEE THE MAGIC OF... A SPECIAL KISS.

IN THE SECRET HEART of Sajid Khan there is a tiny corner with the word SORROW written on it. This is a private place he keeps very much apart from his public life. It's a place of sadness and no sunlight—it is Sajid's vale of tears.

Basically, Sajid Khan is a serious but happy-go-lucky type of guy. If he is sad or worried or unhappy, he doesn't tell anybody or let on a bit—but his sensitive countenance more often than not reveals the occasional secret sorrow he tries so hard to hide. If you love Sajid and would like to truly help kiss his tears away, listen while he tells you about the things you can do to make him happier.

"Being happy depends a lot on the mood I'm in. For instance, if I'm worried about my work—like maybe I feel as though I didn't do a particular scene very well—then I like to have someone around who can give me an objective analysis of my performance. If you were on the set with me and saw me in a sad state later, then maybe you could sit down and tell me what you thought I did well and what you thought I did poorly. I'm sure that would be most helpful. And I know it would send my sadness away.

"Sometimes I'm unhappy because of inner conflicts. I worry about myself. I seem to be a "split personality" at times, and it really troubles me and makes me miserable! If you were were my friend and cared enough, I'm sure you could cheer me up just by being there to hold my hand or reassure me when I am buried in self-doubt. I love girls who are direct and open, and your directness and openness would be like a bright light shining into the dark areas of my heart.

"Sometimes, like everybody else, I'm just plain 'in a bad mood'. That's when it is especially hard to cheer me up. The only solution to my bad moods is to literally drag me out of the house and make me go somewhere! When I'm down, I'll just sit around and mope unless someone is there to arouse my interest in the outside world—like going to a club to watch a performer or to dance in a disco. I'm really wild about dancing. I love romantic, slow dances and fast, energy-consuming dances—and if there are any new steps, I'm a fiend to learn them. By the way, if you are not a very good dancer—don't worry—I'm an excellent teacher!

"This story speaks of kissing my tears away. Don't laugh, but the surest way in the world to make me smile is to kiss me. I don't mean just rush up and grab me. What I mean is—well, it's kind of like the greatest thrill in the world for a boy and girl to share a special kiss. And we all know that certain, special kiss can turn the saddest frown upside down, making it into a great big smile."

You can write to Sajid at 10202 Washington Blvd., Culver City, Calif.

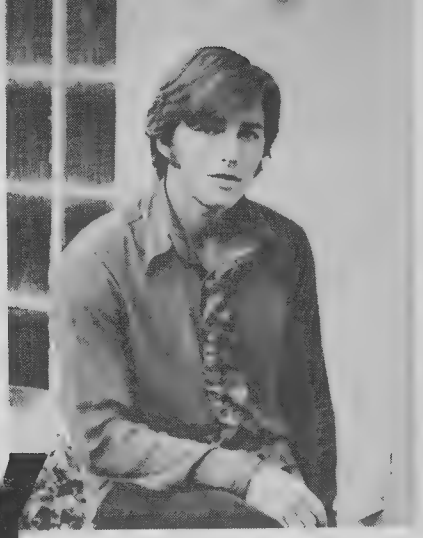
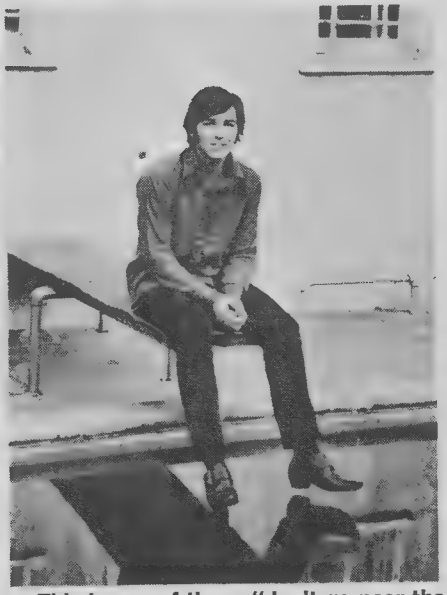
BEHIND CLOSED DOORS WITH CHRIS CROSBY



Hello out there! Welcome to my home. It's perched on top of a hill in Hollywood, and it is my most cherished possession. My home is my "little corner of the world"—private and secluded. But there is always room for you here. From the patio, we can see for miles—on one side stretches the excitement of the Sunset Strip, and on the other side is the beautiful and vast Pacific Ocean. The house is surrounded by flowers—and fabulous orange, lemon and avocado trees.



This is one of those "don't go near the water" pictures! Actually, I go for a swim in my pool at least once a day when I'm home—even when it's raining. After my swim, I stretch out on the flagstone and let the sun bake me for awhile. If you can't swim, I am an expert, and I'll be "glad to give you lessons" free.

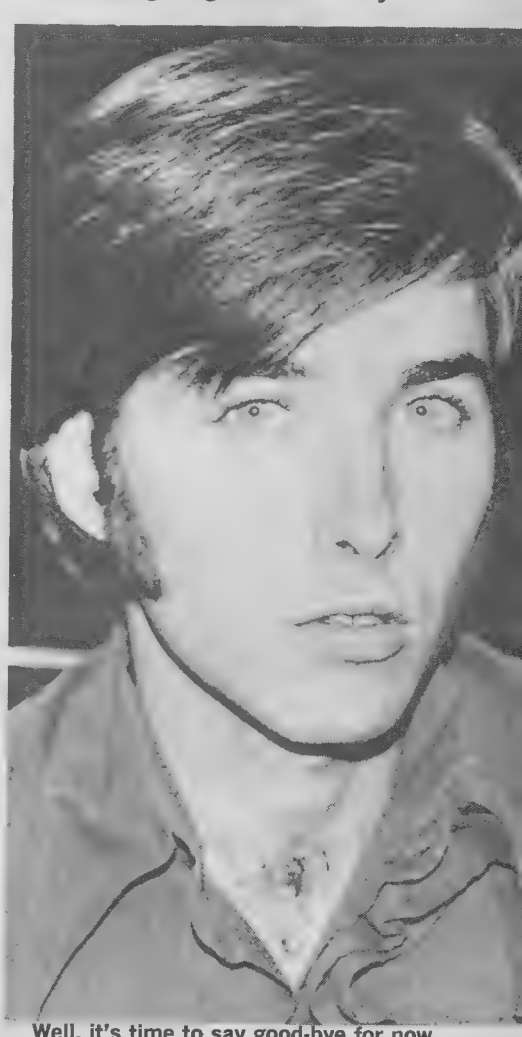
Say hi to "Tarbaby," my English sheepdog. She has been with me for eight years. She is funny, friendly and easy to get along with. The only time she is troublesome is when I have to stay away from home too long—then she starts to mope about and worry. Would you like to come and baby-sit for "Tarbaby" at my house when I am away? I'll pay $1.25 an hour plus all the 16's you can read!

This is "Mabel"—"Tarbaby's" six-week old daughter. "Tarbaby" had a brief, but happy marriage—and "Mabel" was one of the results. "Mabel"—like all girls—is kind of unpredictable, but she makes up for it by being very cuddly and affectionate. She demands lots of attention, and needs to be constantly reminded that she's loved. Don't you think "Mabel" might be a little bit like you—or all of us, for that?

Grrr! Speaking of animals—what do you think of "Rufus?" Don't be frightened; he's as harmless as can be—now. However, I wouldn't have wanted to be the cat who met him in the first place, would you? "Rufus" is a souvenir from some of my groovy Canadian fans and friends, and we get along just fine—as long as I don't accidentally stick a bare toe in his mouth, which I did once. Ouch!!!

Is this a letter from you? I hope so. I have a terrible secret—I'm completely mad about reading letters! I guess you can call it my greatest weakness. I read every letter I get! Some of you have been good enough to write to me not just once, but several times—and that really knocks me out! I spend all my spare time answering as many letters as possible. Getting an answer back to you means as much to me as getting a letter from you.

Here's a toast to us! This mug was made for me by a girl from Dallas, Texas. She gave it to me one day and ran off before I got her name. I wonder if she'll ever know how much this gift has meant to me. I feel awkward about getting presents, especially if they are expensive. But there is something very special about a gift, trinket or card that a girl makes or designs herself. For instance, some performers don't dig getting gum-wrapper chains, but I do. Maybe I'm a square, but in my heart I know that somebody went to a lot of trouble to make that chain—and to me it is very valuable.



Well, it's time to say good-bye for now. It hasn't been easy to share my private thoughts, but I have tried. I guess I'm afraid someone will laugh at me, but at least I am willing to take a chance. I believe that if something is good and true, it should—it must—be shared. No matter whether it is an orange from one of my beautiful trees, or a good vibration that comes from deep in my heart.

You can write to Chris Crosby at Box 548, Lenox Hill Station, New York, N.Y. 10022.

DID YOU WIN A TRIP TO DREAMS-VILLE? LOOK & SEE

LIZ BERNIER of Torrington, Conn., is skipping around in a daffy-daze — thanks to dashing Davy Jones of the Monkees. Davy heard that LIZ was wishing for a camera all her own, so he rushed right out and bought her a Kodak Instamatic. Davy also sent along a personally autographed picture of himself and a Monkee surprise gift! Dreamsville goes all out for you!

GRETCHEN UNRUH of Kennett Sq., Pa., is recovering from a rather serious auto accident and wrote to Dreamsville asking for "anything at all' from her fave, Mark Lindsay. Mark took time out from his busy schedule to send one of his favorite Flamenco hats and an autographed picture of himself. A full year's free subscription to swingin' 16 Magazine should help you heal a little faster too, GRETCHEN!

DEBBIE PARKMAN of Dothan, Ala., has gone ape over handsome Sajid Khan. Sajid turned all her wishes into realities by sending her a huge, autographed picture of himself, a souvenir from India and a handwritten note. Sure is nice up here in Dreamsville, isn't it, DEBBIE? Wanna sign a lease?

It took IRENE STENSBOL of La Habra, Calif., five tries before she finally crashed the gates of Dreamsville. IRENE is just wild about perky Peter Tork and has been wishing for a "little something" from him. Peter sent her a personally autographed picture, a bottle of his favorite perfume and a personal souvenir that he is sure will knock her out! Just goes to show you not to give up hope, cos sooner or later Dreamsville will get around to you!

Ever since AMY SUE BUSSE of Lockport, Ill., saw handsome Chris Crosby on The Merv Griffin Show she's been "Chris Crazy". Imagine AMY SUE's surprise when she received a person-to-person telephone call from Chris, a personally autographed picture and a super-surprise gift Chris picked out just for her! Dreamsville goes all the way!

SUSAN LOTT of Slidel, La., has gone on a never-ending trip to Cloud 9— thanks to Star Trek star Walter Koenig. Walter sent SUSAN a personally autographed picture of himself, an autographed Star Trek script and a gift that he picked out just for her! (I wonder if he got her a special trip to Dreamsville aboard the Enterprize??)

KEN STRINGER of Winona, Miss., is going to spend the next few months in a cast because of a football accident. His friend, CISSY ALRIDGE, wrote to Dreamsville asking for "something to make his days and nights a little less lonely". 16's Editor-in-Chief Gloria Stavers played "Florence Nightingale" for a day by sending KEN a portable 3-speed record player, five swingin' LPs, and a full year's free subscription to 16 Magazine. (A full year's free subscription to 16 goes to CISSY too for telling us about KEN's plight!) Who says dreams don't come true? They do in Dreamsville!

PETER TORK'S LIFE IN PIX

By Mrs. CATHERINE McGUIRE STRAUS

Peter's "Grams" invites you to peek over her shoulder while she turns the pages of the Thorkelson family photo album back to the years before Peter became a world-famous Monkee!

Can you find Peter in this Carleton College class photo? He's near the upper right, in striped jacket and narrow tie. The girl with glasses sitting beside him was his "big romance". She's married now—but they are still friends.

Peter plays guitar and Nicky plays recorder at one of their "jam sessions". Peter was home for a weekend. He was 20 years old and had just moved to Greenwich Village in New York City.

We all went to Brazil for Christmas in 1963. Peter is at the top left, and I am seated at right.

Here's an adorable picture Peter snapped of Chris and Anne when he was home for Christmas in 1965.

This handsome lad is also Chris. This picture was taken when the family went on a tour of England in the spring of 1966.

The "Thorkelson kids" gang up on each other! That's Peter on the bottom. Then come Nicky, Chris and Anne. This was taken in Regina, Canada, in the winter of 1966.

MARK SLADE

ANSWERS

40 INTIMATE QUESTIONS

What is your full real name?
Mark Van Blarcom Slade.
When and where were you born?
I was born in Salem, Mass., on May 1, 1943.
What is your height, weight and coloring?
I am five feet and ten inches tall and I weigh 165 pounds. I have blond hair and blue eyes.
Family info:
My mother's name is Mrs. Esmond R. Crowley, Jr., and my dad is William A. Slade, Jr. I have two sisters and a younger brother.
Where do you live now?
I live in a secluded house overlooking Hollywood. It is surrounded by trees.
Do you have a car?
Yes, and a motorcycle too. I used to have a racing car, but I sold it last year. I figured that way I'd live longer.
Do you have any pets?
I have a Dalmatian dog named "Spot".
What was your first ambition?
My first ambition was to be a cartoonist, and I still draw cartoons.
What kind of music do you like most?
I like folk rock and the blues.
What do you do in your spare time?
I've been spending my spare time at the studio, studying the technical end of making films.
Can you cook?
You bet I can! I cook lots of things, but my favorite is stuffed Maine lobster.
What kind of girl would you like to marry?
One who doesn't want to be an actress!
What type of girls do you usually find most attractive?
I like girls who project something natural and don't have to pretend or hide behind make-up.
Which is most important when you first meet a girl—looks or personality?
Both!
Briefly describe your dream girl.
She'd be dark, aggressive, intelligent and helpful.
What three tips would you give a girl who wanted you to like her?
Don't put on airs. Have an objective in life. Be interested in what I'm doing.
What would you do if you suddenly came into a million-dollar inheritance?
Faint!
What was the biggest thrill of your life?
The call from my agent telling me that I had the role of Billy Blue Cannon in High Chaparral.
Who has helped you most with your career?
My agent Wally Hiller and my family, who kept the faith.
Do you have a secret longing?
Yes, I want to make my own films someday.
Who are your closest friends?
Buck Taylor of Gunsmoke, Ted Markland of High Chaparral, and Milinda Riccilli.
What do you plan to do with your money?
Save it!
If you could take a vacation, where in the entire world would you spend it?
Tahiti! I love tropical islands.
Are you a day or a night person?
Both—it depends on what's happening.
How do you relax?
I sleep—otherwise I don't (relax, that is).
What do you like best about your work?
The surprises that occur almost every day—good or bad.
What do you dislike about your work?
I dislike the phonies who are in the profession—and who have no right to be. Luckily, they don't last long.
What kind of clothes do you wear when you're not performing?
I like "bum-around" clothes, like levis and a T-shirt.
What is your most prized material possession?
A Kennedy half-dollar.
What kind of gifts do you usually give to a girl?
I try to give them something that will be lasting and that means something to the relationship.
What kind of perfume do you like on a girl?
Not any!
What kind of men's cologne do you use?
Old Spice.
Do you have a pet fear or superstition?
Yes, but I'll never tell, cos the men in white coats might come and take me away!
What is your pet weakness?
I guess it's not picking up my clothes.
How would you describe your own personality?
I'm shy, warm, moody and likeable. At least, that's what someone just said!
If you were stranded on a desert island, what three things would you wish for?
I'd wish for water, companionship and a bridge to the mainland!
Where do you get away from it all?
I go to a place called The Raincheck. It's a dark little place in Hollywood where most of my friends hang out.
What do you daydream about?
I daydream about too many wild things to list!
When are you most happy?
I guess I'm happiest when I'm working.
Do you read your fan mail?
Sure, and I try to answer all the letters I get. You can write me c/o High Chaparral, NBC-TV, Burbank, Calif.

You can write to any or all of Garrison's Gorillas c/o ABC-TV Center, Hollywood, Calif. Be sure to put "I Am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.

GREET GARRISON'S GORILLAS

EACH WEEK five groovy guys run, crawl, climb, leap and fight their way through an hour of strenous physical activity. They are the stars of ABC-TV's smash action series Garrison's Gorillas — and they thrill and chill their many fans every Tuesday night. Let's greet them one at a time.

RON HARPER plays the role of Lt. Craig Garrison, leader of the Gorillas. Ron is six feet and one inch tall, weighs 180 pounds and has blond hair and blue-green eyes. He turned down a fellowship to Harvard Law School to become an actor and he is a veteran of the Broadway stage and a score of TV roles. Ron is a bachelor and shares his three-bedroom home in Tarzana, Calif., with his German shepherd dog.

CESARE DENOVA plays the role of Actor. Cesare was born in Rome, Italy, and was an excellent athlete and a medical student before turning his sights toward acting. He is six feet and four inches tall, has dark brown hair and hazel eyes, and weighs 185 pounds. He guested in over seventeen different series—including Bonanza, The Green Hornet and The Lucy Show—before landing his co-starring role in Garrison's Gorillas.

BRENDON BOONE plays the role of Chief. Brendon was born in Meridian, Miss., on February 26. He is six feet tall, weighs 165 pounds, and has brown hair and dark brown eyes. Brendon has always wanted to be an actor and has guested on Bonanza and The Virginian, as well as playing the role of Roman Bedford on Rawhide. He considers his decision to play Chief one of the wisest moves of his entire career.

CHRISTOPHER CARY plays the role of Goniff. Chris hails from Sussex, England—but he now calls California his home. He is five feet and nine inches tall, weighs 150 pounds and has blond hair and blue eyes. Chris was a member of the Sadler's Wells Ballet Theatre before turning his talents toward a dramatic career. He speaks French and German, and is an excellent sportsman. He excels in golf, riding, swimming, fencing and yachting.

RUDY SOLARI plays the role of Casino. Rudy is a real California boy—born in Modesto, went to school in Oakland, and now lives in Hollywood. He is five feet and eleven inches tall, weighs 175 pounds and has brown hair and brown eyes. Rudy guested in over thirty TV series and founded the Actors Theatre in Beverly Hills before landing his current role as Casino.

MY LIFE IN PIX BY JAY NORTH

PSST! Come on over, snuggle up real close—and I'll take you into my secret past! It's just between you and me, so you must promise not to tell a soul! Are you ready? O.K., rest your head on my shoulder and we'll whip all the way back to my childhood—when it all began . . . .

Hi there! Yep, it's me at the age of six months. Dig my crazy booties and my little plastic duck.

It wasn't until six years later that Mom had this studio picture taken of me. (Gee, was I that homely?)

Guess who? You won't have any trouble, if you are a chronic TV-viewer. That's Jon Provost, "Lassie" and "Dennis the Menace"—namely me, at the age of eight.

Here I am as "Dennis" again. Actually, this picture was taken at a masquerade party—I didn't bother to dress up for the occasion.

This picture was taken when I visited a children's hospital in the Southwest, where the nurse and I handed out balloons to the kids.

My mom Dorothy and I, when we attended the opening of the Ice Follies. I was nine years old.

When I was ten, I went on vacation to Hawaii. These healthy-looking specimens are professional surfers at Waikiki Beach.

Good grief—what have we here? "Blue Boy's" family—er, I guess "Blue Boy" turned out not to be a boy! Well, we are all one big happy family, anyway.

My "Dennis" days behind me, I let my hair grow back to its normal color. Here I am at 11 years.

JAY & JON SHOP FOR YOU—

AND HERE'S HOW YOU CAN LAY HANDS ON EVERYTHING THEY BOUGHT

WHO'D A THUNK IT?! Thunk what?! That two triffik guys like Jay North and Jon Provost would go on a wild and wonderful shopping spree—just for YOU! Well, it's true! They did! And 16 Magazine has the clothes Jay and Jon chose for the one lucky winner of this one-of-a-kind contest—which could very well be YOU!

Before you pop your cork and blow your gasket, take a look at this yummy list of "fab gear" from DeVoss of Hollywood. Each article was picked out by Jay and Jon personally—and every one of these outasite items can be yours and yours alone:

A beautiful yellow crepe dress with floppy sleeves and a bright orange stripe down the front.

A soopa-doopa scoop-neck mini-dress in brown decorated with orange "peace" symbols.

A smashing purple and red burgundy striped turtleneck sweater.

A fabulous multi-colored button-down "boy-type" psychedelic-rainbow shirt.

A handbag made of hundreds of wooden beads—with a groovy belt to match.

A wide brown leather belt with a gold-colored buckle and a "love indicator" on it.

AND HEAR THIS! As a special bonus, Jay and Jon each will send you a personally autographed photo of themselves, plus a handwritten note!

Getting all of these goodies for yourself is so E-Z we blush to tell you—but since you gotta know, here's how: Just fill in the coupon on this page, cut it out and mail it to the address on the coupon. Honest, it's as E-Z as that!

All coupons will be dropped inside a barrel. The barrel will then be revolved and 16's Editor-in-Chief, Gloria Stavers, blindfolded, will pick a coupon from the barrel. The coupon she picks will be the contest winner—and the sender of the coupon will be awarded all of Jay and Jon's drooly assortment of clothes!

Hop to it, chickies! Everybody has the same chance to cop the grand prize — so get your coupon wingin' to 16 today!

IMPORTANT! YOU CANNOT ENTER "JAY & JON'S CLOTHES CONTEST" UNLESS YOU USE THIS COUPON! FILL IT IN, CUT IT OUT AND MAIL IT NOW!

5 ERRORS CONTEST

RIGHT

ZOUNDS! Point your pupils at these five individuals. They call themselves the H. P. Lovecraft, and their sound is as unusual as their clothing. You can tune in on their unique music by giving their single, The White Ship, or their LP, H. P. Lovecraft, a spin. They record for Philips Records. But wait a minute! Do you see what we see?

The top drawing is fine, but the bottom drawing contains five errors. Can you spot them? If you can, just draw a circle around each error with a pen or pencil, fill in the coupon below, tear the page along the dotted line and mail the coupon to: Five Errors Contest, 16 Magazine, Box 104, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11202.

To each of the first five readers who can correctly identify all five errors, 16 will award $10 in cash. All coupons will be dropped in*side a revolving barrel and Gloria* Stavers, blindfolded, will pick the winners — so everybody has a chance.

Go to work right away — and good luck!

GEEGEE'S GOSSIP

WHAT'S NEW WITH YOUR FAVORITES FROM COAST-TO-COAST!!

WHILE DAVY JONES was on his four-week vacation in January, a fan (who prefers to remain un-named) baby-sat his new puppy "Susie" and his pussycat "Tibsey". Lucky fan! Lucky DAVY! . . . Speaking of Susies, sweet SUSIE COWSILL had her Christmas wish granted when she was given an adorable black mini-poodle. She named it "Spot" cos ". . . that's what it looks like." . . . Hope you caught HERMAN & THE HERMITS' wow-ee performance early this month on The Jackie Gleason Show. PETER will star as "Pinocchio" in an ABC-TV color spec late this coming fall. . . . TERRY MELCHER popped up in England and sold the publishing rights to all his American copyright songs to the BEATLES' new music company, Apple. TERRY's tunes include just about every hit that MARK LINDSAY has sung on the Raider recordings. Clever fella, that TERRY. P.S.: At press time, TERRY says he and his steady girl CANDY BERGEN are not wed—yet!

. . . Mark Lindsay, by the by, will speed no more. In his new contract with Dick Clark Productions there is a clause preventing him from sky-diving or driving motorbikes or racing cars. . . . DICK CLARK sure knows how to pick winners. After signing MARK & PAUL to co-host his Saturday afternoon TV series Happening '68, DICK promptly went into a huddle with teendom's newest idol, gorgeous CHRIS CROSBY. DICK is trying to sign CHRIS to solo-host a brand new, glitzy, network evening (prime-time) TV variety show! . . . Addenda: Stars fell on FRED SEGAL's clothing store in Hollywood recently when both MARK and CHRIS bumped into each other there. They introduced themselves and have become good friends.

. . . A special GeeGee Award for the Best Television Teen Variety Show is being sent to groovy DON WEBSTER of Cleveland's Upbeat variety program. DON's show features live music and reaches 50 cities all over America. Congratulations, DON! . . . Oh, yes—and congratulations to BARRY WHITWAM (of HERMAN'S HERMITS) and his lovely new bride DALE LECKEY, 22. BARRY met DALE four years ago at a club in Manchester and they were married in that city on December 16 last year. . . . The STONES calling their new record company Mother Earth—the BEATLES calling theirs Apple. . . . DEANA MARTIN's new group, the CHROMIUM PLATED STREAMLINED BABY, went kerplunk. . . . So did JOE MARRA's famous Nite Owl Cafe in Greenwich Village—so he reopened the Nite Owl as a groovy new poster, button and card shop. It's at 118 W. 3rd St., if you wanta drop by. While you're down in the Village, of course, you must, must MUST stop at DAVY JONES' fab boutique—Zilch! That's at 217 Thompson St.

The RASCALS (who sold out the old Madison Square Garden—18,000 seats—on its closing night) have included a song on their fourth LP Once Upon A Dream called Hawaii. EDDIE and FELIX wrote it and they have dedicated it to the fantastic 50th state, where they just finished a super-sellout concert for TOM MOFFAT of Station K-poi. . . . GeeGee recommended LPs this month included Cowsill's I Can Fly on MGM; the Fifth Dimension's The Magic Garden on Soul City; Forever Changes by the Love on Elektra; Dave Clark 5's Everybody Knows on Epic; the Lovin' Spoonful's Everything Playing on Kama Sutra; the Kaleidoscope's Beacon From Mars and Side Trips on Epic; Van Dyke Parks' Song Cycle on Reprise and my own personal fave—Jerry Moore's Life Is A Constant Journey Home on ESP. . . . The Who's great new LP on Decca was released under the title The Who Sell Out, and they get the GeeGee Award for zaniest album covers of the century! . . . Soul Survivors, Philly's hottest group, got a gold record for selling a million copies of their swinging' single Expressway To Your Heart. Jerry Blavatt (pictured here holding the gold LP) of WFIL-TV made the presentation.

Groupdom's greatest new sound, the NAZZ, is having a film scripted for them by BOB THOM (he wrote the Chris Jones star-er Wild In The Streets). NAZZ's first single went on sale as this issue hit the stands—be sure to find yourself a copy. . . . Another new group, the ILLUSION, features an ultra-stunning lead singer—JOHNNY VINCI, 20. The ILLUSION's first single, Party, is on Dyno Voice Records and you can write to the group in care of New Beat, 1674 Broadway, New York City. . . . Elektra recording star TIM BUCKLEY was selected by the MONKEES to be among their "interview" guests at the end of one of their forthcoming TV segments. . . . JIM MORRISON is being sought by dynamic young film producer ROGER CORMAN to play the starring role in ROGER's forthcoming big budget movie David And Goliath. Well, who looks more like the beautiful biblical DAVID than our "little shepherd boy" JIM?

Jim as David?

THE MONKEE-MAIL BOX

The ONLY place in the whole wide world where you can write a letter to your favorite Monkee—or to all four Monkees—and be sure that you will get a PERSONAL reply!

MONKEE "GOSSIP"

Dear Monkees,

I recently read in a teen-type "scandal" magazine that you guys aren't friends and that you never will be friends, because you didn't choose each other to work with in the first place. I find it very hard to believe this. Could I hear it directly from you what the real truth is? Please be honest. I can take it!

Sue Willis

Dallas, Texas

• Dear Sue,

It's true that we didn't choose each other to work with, but other than that—the statement you read in the magazine is entirely incorrect. We all spend a great many happy hours together, both at work and socially. Each of us enjoys his own private life, but we also share a great deal. We have formed deep friendships with one another and we feel sure that these friendships will never end.

DAVY, MIKE, PETER and MICKY

MIKE'S "FUTURE"

Dear Mike,

A magazine printed "predictions" and one of them forecast that you and Phyllis would get divorced and you would marry a girl named Patsy. The very thought of that nearly broke my heart. What was your reaction to this?

Patti Hought

Houston, Texas

• Dear Patti,

I think those kind of predictions are dangerous and silly. For instance, people read them and then get them mixed up and think that they are facts. My advice to you is SEMPER 16—rough translation: Always 16. Are you with me?

MIKE

PETER'S MARRIAGE

Dear Peter,

I heard a rumor that you were once married to a girl named Jody. Is this true? If so, why didn't I know about it before?

Barbara Sardi

Belleville, N.J.

• Dear Barbara,

I guess you weren't a 16 regular back in June '67, because in last year's June 16 there was a short and honest story about my brief marriage. It happened when I was much younger, and the young lady and myself feel that we are better persons for having been through the marriage—even though it was dissolved. Thank you for your interest.

TAPING THE MONKEES

Dear Monkees,

I have a great idea that I would like to pass on to others. Sometimes I can't wait a whole week (from Monday to Monday, that is) to hear your beautiful voices—so I make a tape recording of your TV show each Monday night! Any *16*ers who want to try this should turn the volume on the tape recorder all the way up, and they will get a better reproduction of your voices.

Mimi Harrison

Roland, Ark.

• Dear Mimi,

You are a budding genius! It really knocks us out that you care enough to do that. Hope we'll all be friends forever!

MICKY, PETER, MIKE and DAVY

"HIPPIE" MICKY

Dear Micky,

I read in a blah magazine that you aren't getting along with the other guys because they think you act too much like a "hippie."

Gail Feldman

Santa Rosa, Calif.

• Dear Gail,

False! The word "hippie" means a lot of different things to a lot of different people. We Monkees don't consider ourselves hippies at all. We do—and that means all of us—like far-out clothes, Indian beads, etc. We don't feels the least bit competitive and, as a matter of fact, we Monkees are always making presents of these clothes and trinkets to one another.

MICKY

CONCERT PLANS

Dear Monkees,

My heart was broken last year when my Mom couldn't let me see you when you were in Detroit. I would like to know if you will play Detroit this summer.

Margit Lamprecht

Windsor, Canada

• Dear Margit,

We have not made definite concert plans. We will be doing concerts all summer, and we certainly hope Detroit will be one of the towns we hit. Keep your fingers crossed!

MICKY, DAVY, MIKE and PETER

SPECIAL THANK-YOU FROM THE MONKEES TO SHARON LYNCH OF LEMMON, S.D.: Thanks for the lovely card and booklets. We all found them very interesting.

That's all there's room for this month. If you want to write to us, either as a group or as individuals, send your letters to The Monkee-Mailbox, 16 Magazine, P.O. Box 1056, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11202—and your letters will be promptly forwarded to us personally wherever we are. Then be sure to get each and every future issue of 16 Magazine and look in The Monkee-Mailbox for your letter and our answers!

MARK comes to YOUR house!

MARK LINDSAY's heavy schedule of seemingly endless television shows, recording sessions and concert tours gives him the opportunity to present the very best of his natural talents and abundant gifts to the thousands upon thousands of Lindsay-lovers who have chosen him for their very favorite star. But all this necessary work prohibits Mark from doing one of the things that he would like most of all to do. Let him tell you about it in his very own words:

Among the many letters I get, one of the things most frequently asked of me is, "Please come to my house." Sometimes the letter is a long, handwritten invitation to a birthday or a graduation party; sometimes it is a letter asking me to come and sing for a special occasion. And sometimes it is just a simple and very sweet heartfelt invitation which says, "Come to my house—make yourself at home. Meet my folks and enjoy a home-cooked meal."

Though I love all the letters I get, the girls who write letters like that last one are among those who have discovered one of the secret keys to my heart. I guess that — more than anything else — I long to live in a loving, home-like atmosphere. And though those joys seem "forbidden" to me for the time being, I can't help but think about them in my dreams — and visiting your house is one of my very favorite dreams. Close your eyes and listen. I want to tell you how it's going to be — when I come to your house.

First, you'll be surprised at how early I arrive — so I guess that means you'd better get ready to greet me at least an hour sooner than you expected! Because being in your house and spending the day in an actual home is so important to me, I would like to spend as much time there as I possibly can.

When you open your front door, you'll see something that looks very much like this: a tall, slightly shy guy, dressed in one of his favorite outfits — a white ruffled sweater, tight black slacks and white boots. He'll have extremely long dark brown hair (tied back with a long black ribbon), a crooked grin on his face — and a gift for you in his hand. In case you don't recognize him right away, I'll give you a clue: that guy will be me, Mark Lindsay — coming to spend the day with you!

After we both get over the mutual shyness of our first meeting, you will invite me inside. I hope you will never for one moment be the tiniest bit embarrassed about anything concerning your home. Sometimes people get the idea that performers expect special treatment and a special "atmosphere". That's just not true. Any guy in show business will tell you that just being in a warm, simple and loving home is all that any of us will ever ask — no elegance or finery is necessary.

Actually, you and I will immediately be at ease. Before you even ask me, I find a chair and sit myself down. I would love to spend the first hour or so alone with you. Just you and me — talking, finding out what we could possibly learn about each other. Like what we really think, really care about and really long for. After we've sort of bared our hearts and souls to one another and established a close and true feeling of friendship and understanding (that could never be broken), you show me around the house and introduce me to your parents.

Don't be the least bit uptight about introducing me to your folks (that includes brothers and sisters too, if you have any). Usually, it takes the dads a while to get over my funny hairdo, but I sincerely like all people. I am able to get through, on one plane or another, and establish real communication. Also, the fact that I am actually a country boy shows right through, and I have found that most folks are able to feel at ease with me — as I am with them.

Brothers and sisters are a gas! If you have any, it would be fun for us to all sit around and "rap" for an hour or so.

The thing I would most like to do is take you for a ride in my car (the red Ferrari — if I still have it by the time I meet you!) I will promise your folks that I'd drive carefully and we'd run out and drive off! First, you would take me on a sightseeing tour of your town. I'd especially like to see where you go to school, where you hang out in the afternoon, where your friends live (we could even stop for a while and say "hi" to some of them, if you wish) — and then I'd like very, very much for you to show me the secret place (or places) where you go to hide away when you really want to be alone.

This is the place where I would stop the car. You and I will get out, walk a little and then sit quite alone for a while. We wouldn't have to talk. No, we wouldn't even have to speak. Just being close together in a place like that would enable us to share, in a few minutes, silence, what people never get to know in a whole lifetime of long conversations. I think you understand what I mean.

Later, I would be delighted if your mom made us a home-cooked dinner. (Of course, if that's impossible, you and I and your whole family could go out and find a groovy restaurant, an enjoy a fine meal together.) But if — like I said — it's possible, it would just knock me out if your mom cooked up something for all of us. I'd go right off my diet — and would love to have something like a beef stew, candied sweet potatoes, a great big salad, and home-made pie with ice cream for dessert. An extra added attraction like biscuits or corn bread wouldn't hurt a bit, either!

This day of ours would have to end sooner or later. So after we had sat around, talked some more and looked at TV or listened to records, I would have to get up and say to you, "It's time for me to go."

You'd see me to the door and down the walk. Standing by my car, I'd kiss your cheeks so that tears would not fall there, and before I left you — for a while — I'd simply say, "No matter where I go or how long I am gone — please don't forget me."

16'S ALL-STAR BIRTHDAY & GIFT GUIDE

HAVE YOU EVER wondered when your favorite star's birthday is, what kind of present he would like to have—and how to make certain that it is mailed to a place where he will be sure to get it? Well, wonder no more! Here is full info on all the stars who have birthdays coming up within the next 30 days. The guide includes measurements, favorite gifts and colors, and a correct address—PLUS a complete horoscope for all you Pisces.

Pisces — February 19 to March 21.
Birth Stone — Aquamarine.
Flower — Daffodil.
Colors — Black, green, lavender and white.

Character — Pisces persons are artistic and skillful, and have a wonderful imagination. They are very active people in a restless way and can snap into action at a moment's notice. They crave companionship at all times and are seldom "loners." They are very good at handling details and have good memories. They ask a great deal of themselves and their friends, but they are very generous. They make good leaders, even though they sometimes give the impression of being withdrawn and quiet.

Love Aspects — Pisces persons are capable of great emotional attachments and supreme sacrifices in the realm of romance. They want a life of calm yet sparkling pleasure, so they look for partners who can help them find it. They meet their loved ones halfway, and tend to be very secretive about their romances. They like to share and share alike with their loved ones.

BEATLE FLASHES!

AROUND THE WORLD IN A WHIRL WITH JOHN, PAUL, GEORGE AND RINGO!

A TRIP ON THE YELLOW SUBMARINE

The brand-spankin'-new full-length Beatle color cartoon film, Yellow Submarine, has been scheduled for release in the U.S. this summer. Among the many cartoon characters you'll find aboard are "The Pepper People," "The Blue Meanies," "Old Fred," "The Boob" and "The Lord Mayor." These characters reside beyond the "Rainbow Gates of Pepperland." Sounds pretty wild, doesn't it?

MAGICAL MYSTERY TOUR ON U.S. TV

The long-awaited Magical Mystery Tour was shown as a special Christmas present to English television viewers on December 26. The British TV audience went wild over the antics of John, Paul, George and Ringo and their many friends. Although no date has been set for the American TV debut, offers are flooding the Beatles. They are considering a number of tempting bids from the networks, but it is unlikely that Magical Mystery Tour will be seen in the U.S. before March. Can you wait?

BEATLES TOPS IN DOWNBEAT

The Beatles won by a landslide as the world's outstanding vocal-or-rock group in the 32nd annual poll by Downbeat, the top pop music trade magazine. The fab four got four times as many votes as their nearest competitors—the Supremes. Congratulations—guys!

RINGO STARR AND CANDY

Romantic Ringo flew to Rome to begin work on his first solo movie role in the controversial Candy. Early reports said that Ringo was slightly ill at ease in the glitter and glamour of a film star's public life. Ringo said that he wants to assert himself as an individual during this film, and see if he can establish himself as a film actor during the ten days' work on his cameo role. Ringo was met by his co-star, Ewe Aulin, at the airport. They share the bill with Richard Burton, Marlon Brando, Peter Sellers and Sugar Ray Robinson. Betcha' it'll be one heck of a film!

JOHN LENNON—PLAYWRIGHT

A new play called Scene Three Act One had a private performance at the National Theatre in England in late December. The play was based on an adaptation of John Lennon's way-out books, In His Own Write and A Spaniard In The Works. It was directed by Victor Spinetti (who acted in the two Beatle movies) and received eight curtain calls. The crowded house of first-nighters included Sean Connery, Diane Cilento, Sir Laurence Olivier and many others. The New York Lincoln Centre repertory company offered to stage the American premiere. (Is there anything those Beatles can't do?)

THE BEATLES—ART PATRONS

John and Paul McCartney found a new role—as patrons of the arts! The first exhibition at London's Royal Institute Galleries of the work of 29-year-old Jonathan Hague was sponsored by John and Paul. They are so sold on Jonathan's paintings that they said if the exhibition doesn't launch him effectively, they will give him another showing in two years! Already they have hired the gallery, paid for the printing of the catalogues, and provided a preview party for over 3,000 people. Wow!

APPLE—"A PSYCHEDLIC WOOLWORTHS"

A far-out clothing shop opened on Baker Street in London late in December. It's called Apple, and its wares range from velvet frock coats, damask waistcoats, flowing printed trousers and Egyptian-style headgear to peacock feathers! Guess who the owners are—the Beatles, that's who! More than 250 guests jammed into the shop for the opening—including Twiggy, John Lennon and George Harrison.

PAUL AND JANE TAKE A HOLIDAY

Paul McCartney and Jane Asher took a week's holiday at Paul's farm near Cambeltown, Argyll, Scotland. They took Paul's English sheep-dog "Martha" along with them. Trouble with the fan belt and heater of Paul's car meant that they had to interrupt their journey with a stop in Glasgow. The townspeople there could only gasp, "That's Paul McCartney out there!" Wouldn't you?!

JOHN, GEORGE, CYNTHIA AND PATTIE IN PARIS

John Lennon, George Harrison and their lovely wives attended a UNICEF benefit party in Paris. They were in good company, cos Marlon Brando, Richard Burton, Elizabeth Taylor, Lena Horne and Maharishi Mahesh Yogi were there too! John and George applauded a concert given by the Beach Boys and posed for photographs before returning to Bonnie Britain. (Ringo was in Rome and Paul was on vacation in Scotland.) Real globe-trotters these Beatles, don't you think?

That ties up the Beatle package for April. Wonder what John, Paul, George and Ringo will be up to next month?? It's just bound to be spectacular—so stay tuned!

Paul, John, George and Ringo pose for the camera with a model of the Yellow Submarine—featured in their all-new color cartoon film.

Ringo and Ewe Aulin do a double-handshake at the Rome airport.

16'S SWEET HEART of the Month

As April's Sweetheart Of The Month, we salute darlin' Dino Martin, who has been one of your favorites for a long time. Dino now A&R's all the records for his popular group, in addition to playing lead guitar and singing. The following is how just a few of 16's readers feel about adorable Dino:

"Dino is the perfect dream guy. I just love his blond hair, blue eyes and friendly personality." Mindy L., N.Y.

"I wish Dino were my boy friend, because he acts real cool." Patti A., Texas

"There's something so mysterious about Dino. He's sweet and sexy at the same time." Diana C., Mass.

"Dino is perfect in every way, and he's just the right age for me." Laura D., La.

3-D Stones

THE LO-DOWN

por La Gatita

WHAT DRUMMER for what top pop group appeared "incognito" on a hip L.A. radio show and told the audience that he really wasn't happy being a teen idol? . . . What two members of what top pop group have secret steadies stashed away back home—one in the hills of the Midwest and one down in Dixie? . . . Flash! If you dug that groovy 3-D ROLLING STONES LP cover—you can now get a large, matted, 3-D color poster of it. The poster is 20x20 inches, and you can get one by sending $3 (cash, check or money order) to the Official Rolling Stones Fan Club, Box 919, Radio City Station, New York City . . . Keep your eyes, ears, etc., open—cos The Crazy World of Laurel & Hardy is coming your way. This is a movie featuring the very best parts—spliced from over 50 of those famous Laurel & Hardy films. HAL ROACH and JAY WARD put the package together. It is narrated by GARRY MOORE and is currently being shown in movie houses all over America. Laurel & Hardy are long-time faves of such hip cats as PETER TORK, DENNY DOHERTY, STEVE DE NAUT, VIC GHIDALIA and NIKKI DE PERTY . . . Two of the most beautiful young people in the world, LEONARD WHITING (a 17-year-old English actor) and OLIVIA HUSSEY (a 15-year-old English actress) are starred in the brand new Paramount movie Romeo And Juliet. It will be shown in America in the early spring . . . MR. & MRS. ELVIS PRESLEY and MR. & MRS. "PAPA" JOHN PHILLIPS expect heirs to their respective thrones just about the time you read this!

For those of you who don't know what that "V" signal the MONKEES (and misc. hippies) make with their fingers, here's the explanation. It is a gesture meaning whatever you wish for it to mean, as long as it means something positive—for instance: love, hello, peace, groovy and good . . . GRAHAM GOULDMAN, 21, who wrote such hits as No Milk Today, Bus Stop and For Your Love, is now recording on his own. His first single is Upstairs, Downstairs on RCA. His LP is The Graham Gouldman Thing—co-produced by his buddy PETER NOONE.

DAVY'S DEPT.

Davy shares three fantastic weeks with YOU in England, Switzerland and America. Take his hand, hold on tight—AND AWAY YOU GO!

WELCOME to the private world of Davy Jones. Yes, it's me—and yes, you and I are about to share three fantastic weeks together! At the present time, I am departing to go home to Manchester for a week, to go to Switzerland for a week and to spend a week driving across our beautiful America! Since I want so very much for you to come along with me, and since (for reasons that we won't go into) that's impossible right now, I decided to do the next best thing—to share my every plan in minute detail with you! So—be my luv, give me your hand, and come along with me.

FIRST STOP—MANCHESTER

Our plane lands at the enormous London Airport. We switch immediately to a smaller plane, which flies us to Manchester in less than 30 minutes. Waiting at the airport, standing on the tarmack (that's our word for the "apron" at the end of the runway) as our plane taxies into Manchester, are two of my sisters, Lynda and Berle. They are waving madly and my heart almost bursts with joy.

We pop into the girls' mini-car and in no time we have pulled up in front of my dad's house on Clumber Road. Dad, of course, doesn't go out very often ,as he hasn't been feeling too well, but he is standing there on the porch straight as an oak and sturdy as a rock—very glad to greet me. I suppose you will be a little surprised to see me cry—but then again, maybe you are the understanding type. I certainly hope so.

Inside the house, I introduce you to the "clan"—to my other sister, Hazel, and to the husbands of all three girls. After that, I proudly introduce you to one nephew and one niece—and then up pops Hazel holding her brand new baby boy, Robert! He's seven months old and I have never seen him before. Of course (being a Jones kid), he is as cute as can be! Oh, and I mustn't forget my Scottie pup, "Dodger." He's on hand—yapping his head off, naturally.

Our evening is filled with warmth and joy as we all share presents and everybody brings everybody else up-to-date on the latest news. Neighbors drop by to say hello and too soon it is very late and time to go to "slumber city."

LONDON STOPOVER

Our next stop is London—one of the most exciting cities in the world. You are amazed when you see that Peter (Tork) is waiting for us there! Wow, what a wild time we have! Of course, Peter knows all the Beatles and I make sure that you are introduced to John, Paul, George and Ringo. Our host in London is a great chap named Jack McGraw, who works for the Screen Gems offices there. Jack really knows his way around, so we don't miss a sight.

Among our stops are all the swinging discotheques, a shopping spree on Carnaby Street and King's Road, and a visit to the Beatles' new shop—Apple.

SKIING TOGETHER

Soon we find ourselves flying off again—this time to Switzerland. Perched high on the snow-capped mountain is a beautiful, jewel-like city called St. Moritz. In St. Moritz, for the very first time in my life, I try snow skiing—and you get a good laugh on me! But whether we are good or bad at it doesn't matter. What is exciting is the fact that we are in Switzerland—the air is crisp and beautiful, the sky is bright blue, and we can spend as many hours as we wish rolling and tumbling in the snow or just walking through the fairy tale city of St. Moritz.

BACK TO THE STATES

The last leg of our trip begins in New York City, where my Cadillac Eldorado is waiting for us. I have decided that I really want to see America, so we drive slowly across the States toward Hollywood. The first city we visit is Washington, D.C. The capital of your country is a fascinating place—and we fulfill a long-time wish to see such famous landmarks as the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Memorial and, of course, the White House.

Next we drive across the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains and head on down toward New Orleans. I have heard that New Orleans is one of the friendliest and prettiest cities in America—and that it also has great food! Naturally, our sightseeing tour of this romantic city includes the world-famous French Quarter. Here we spend endless hours visiting quaint little houses—all with beautiful patio gardens—built over 100 years ago.

Texas is the next state on our list—and it's a big order! We visit Mike Nesmith's home town—Dallas. And of course we have one of those famous chiliburgers he is always talking about! (If we're lucky, we might even find Mike and Phyllis down there on a visit. Wouldn't that be a gas?)

Well, it's time to turn our wheels toward Hollywood—and head for home. We begin our leisurely drive west, not missing the opportunity to stop at the gorgeous and world-famous Grand Canyon. It is here that we rediscover the quiet magnificence and splendor of another of nature's miracles.

The very last lap of our drive shows us some of the beauty of the desert of Arizona and Southern California, and we see a sunset of such fantastic colors and wild beauty that we will never forget it. Before we part from one another in Hollywood, we spend several hours reminiscing about the wonderful travels and adventures we have been through together. And, as you surely know, reminiscing about what has happened is almost as much fun as having it actually happen!

LOOK MA, I'M LAUGHING!

16 will pay $1 for every joke published in "Look Ma, I'm Laughing!". And for the joke selected as "Joke of the Month," we'll pay $5.

We'll also pay $2 for each drawing we publish here (please submit them, if possible, in black ink on white paper or board). IMPORTANT: NO DRAWINGS WILL BE RETURNED.

So come on — make us laugh! Send your jokes to: "Look Ma, I'm Laughing!", 16 Magazine, Box 104, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11202. AND BE SURE TO WRITE YOUR FULL NAME AND FULL ADDRESS ON EACH PAGE OF MATERIAL YOU MAIL!

P.S. Many of the jokes we receive are the same; for this reason, the sender whose entry bears the earliest postmark will be credited with the joke and awarded the cash.

SUSIE SQUEALS ON THE COWSILLS—

—AND THE FAMILY GHOST!

Or could it be that the friendly spook who raises a racket in the dead of night is actually—ALL SIX OF SUSIE'S OLDER BROTHERS?!

I THINK every girl in the world would like to have an older brother. If you've ever made that wish, then read my story—and you'll see what it would be like if you lived with me. You see, I have six older brothers!! If you already have an older brother and don't know how to handle him, then maybe I can help you too. I've become an expert on the subject of "big brothers"! When you're out-numbered six to one—the way I am—you have to become an expert!

By the way, I've always wanted a sister too, so you can be my "Secret 16 Sister"—and come along and let me tell you what you're in for as part of the Cowsill Clan.

First of all, get ready to be treated "like one of the boys". By that I mean, don't try to curl your hair or dress up. After all the time and trouble you spend, the fellows will gang up on you and giggle. Even if you look pretty they won't give you the satisfaction of complimenting you, so better just stick to slacks and shorts. Oh, the boys like mini-skirts—so we can get away with wearing them!

BIG BILL

You'll just love Bill. He's our biggest brother. Bill was 20 on January 9. He's a "regular kind of brother", and we get along just great. Bill takes me out sometimes too! In New York City, he took me to dinner and to a movie—it was like a real date! That's one good thing about having older brothers. It prepares you for when you are old enough to date, and you certainly learn how to act around boys.

BOYFRIEND BARRY

Speaking of dating and boys, the first rule is never tell your brothers you have a crush on a boy. You'll never hear the end of it, if you do! I made the mistake of mentioning the name of a boy in my class who I thought was cute—and I'll never be able to live it down! Brothers don't miss a trick, and they know exactly what to say to embarrass you—and, boy, do they take advantage of it! Of all my brothers, I think Barry would make a wonderful boy friend for some lucky girl. He's very kind and awfully cute. I guess I'd choose Barry because he's closest to my age—except for John. But John teases me too much!

GENTLE (?) JOHN

All brothers are teasers. It's a natural instinct they are born with and I've learned to live with it, but some brothers are experts at teasing little sisters—and that leads us directly to John! He's my youngest brother and turned 12 on March 2. I think John's favorite pastime is arguing with me. I use to think he didn't like me, but now I know better. He puts up a great fight, but I usually get my way and he lets me tag along with him. Also, when I don't feel well, John is the first to worry about me—so maybe he does really care (or maybe he has no one to pick on if I'm not around). Mom says John is good at hiding his real feelings and that I shouldn't be hurt. She's usually right, so I guess I'll take her word for it.

PEACEFUL BOB

Bob is very much like Bill in the way he treats me. We get along very well. I guess it has to do with their ages. After all, they're practically grown-ups. Bob is 18, two years younger than Bill. Both Bob and Bill help me with my math homework. I call them them "good guys". Bob is very generous and often gives me surprises—and that's something every girl (of any age) loves to get.

"FAVES" & ADVICE

I don't really have one favorite brother. I have a different favorite each day. I just told you about Bill, Barry, John and Bob, who are the ones in the group. But, in addition to them, my brothers Dick (Bob's twin) and Paul are our road managers—and they are very dear to me too!

One thing that I've learned about older brothers is you can't really argue with them. If you try, their reply is, "You can't tell us what to do, because we're older than you". I guess it's no use! Also, never be a tattle-tale—you'll make things worse for yourself. I know. I used to run to Mom and Dad complaining 100 times a day because the boys would "pick on me", but I quickly learned that it was the wrong thing to do, because then the boys called me a "sissy"—and teased me all the more! We now keep our disagreements to ourselves. Usually, by the next morning it's forgotten anyway—and we start all over again!

I know now that teasing is all a part of affection and love. I didn't quite understand that when Mom first tried to explain it to me, but now I know it's true. After all—I tease them too—and I know I love them!

OUR FAMILY GHOST

Before I go, I'd also like you to meet Captain McCormack, our "family ghost". He lives with us in our home in Newport, R.I. I hope you're not frightened of him, cos he's a good ghost. Captain McCormack once lived in our house long ago—and I guess he liked it so much he never wanted to leave it. We don't mind him living with us, because we have plenty of room and he doesn't bother anyone—except at night. You see, he makes an awful lot of noise at night! He bangs on the pipes and jumps on the stairs—and sometimes it's difficult to sleep because of all the racket he puts up!

Or could the noise just be all my brothers?!

LAST-MINUTE FLASHES by GEEGEE

THE LAST song the MONKEES sang (in a foreign language) on their Christmas show is an old Spanish Christmas carol . . . MICKY spent part of his Christmas holidays in India . . . DAVY JONES and SALLY FIELD are NOT MARRIED—an untruth printed in a rag mag recently . . . MAMAS & PAPAS are back together and recording again. Their first single is the title tune of SIDNEY POITIER's new film The Love Of Ivy. The song was written by PAPA JOHN, and DENNY and CASS rotate singing lead . . . Rumor: The Byrds are now a trio consisting of JIM (ROGER) McGUINN, MICHAEL CLARKE and CHRIS HILLMAN.

PAUL JONALI, handsome young movie photographer (he's wed to publicist CONNIE DE NAVE), is now specializing in making two-to-ten-minute films on record artists either doing skits to their new singles or actually singing the records. These "presentation" films are incredibly original and fascinating. PAUL's offices are at 45 E. 28th St., New York City. Hope we will soon be seeing some of his films on Happening '68 . . . Handsome MITCH RYDER unblinkingly admitted that – yes, he is married, and has been for several years! Say "hi" to his family – his wife SUE, daughter DAWN MICHELE and puppydog and pussycat "Jenny" and "Puff" . . . The ROONEY BROTHERS (MICKEY Jr., TEDDY and TIMMY) have just begun a rock 'n' roll tour of the midwest. Their newest Columbia single is called Blue-Streak Flyer, which they wrote themselves . . . LENNY DAVIDSON and his wife welcomed their second son, SCOTT. One more, LENNY, and you'll have a swingin' trio! . . . Speakin' of the DC5, bachelor MIKE SMITH's mum baked him a birthday cake in the shape of a grand piano to celebrate his 24th birthday on December 6 . . . BEE GEES were voted the world's Top New Group in the New Musical Express poll recently. Their brand new Atlantic LP is called Horizontal . . . GEORGE HARRISON has been signed by Alan Clore Films to compose and arrange the musical score of the new movie Wonderwall . . . STRAWBERRY ALARM CLOCK composed the theme for DICK CLARK's movie Psych-Out. They will also appear as guest stars in the film . . . MORTIMER, another great new group, are three 18-year-old bachelors from Poughkeepsie, N.Y. They have just completed their first LP for Philips Records. Oddly enough, it's called Mortimer . . . When you see the BEATLES' Magical Mystery Tour, you'll get your first glimpse of England's crazy new rage, the BONZO DOG DO DAH BAND – pictured here (if you can find them, that is).

Take a look at the new McCOYS. The boys have signed with Mercury Records now and their first single is about to be released. Recognize them? . . . BEACH BOYS posed prettily for London photographers after receiving an English silver disc for their LP Best Of The Beach Boys . . . The UNION GAP, of Woman Woman fame, are all California guys. You can write to them at Personality Productions, 1055 No. El Centro Ave., Los Angeles, Calif. 90038.

RASCALS RAID THE MONKEES SHOW!

ALL PHOTOS WORLD COPYRIGHT 1966 BY 16 MAGAZINE

The very first visitors invited by the Monkees themselves to do a guest interview on their TV show were Gene Cornish and Dino Danelli of the Rascals. (Unfortunately, Eddie and Felix were not available, as they were over-dubbing some of the bands on the Rascals' new LP).

Slowly, slowly, they —— trip along from pix to pix and see for yourself!

What have we here? A magic piece of paper? Watch out Davy, it might explode!

Whoosh—abracadabra! Our genies are about to reveal their great secret—!

Why, I do believe it's the album cover for the Rascals' new Atlantic LP, Once Upon A Dream!

Gene explains that the back cover symbolically represents the Rascals' "future".

Davy listens while Dino explains that the front cover represents the Rascals "today".

Dino, who designed the cover, looks pleased about the whole thing.

Stay tuned to the Monkees show, so you won't miss this fabulous trio!

"TEN WAYS TO MAKE ME LOVE YOU" BY HERMAN

DON'T ever scream—and don't ever point. And whatever you do, please, please, pretty please don't giggle. I know that when girls become excited—or carried away by something—it is easy for them to do these things, but if you want me to love you DON'T. I really don't dig them — so stay cool.

BE a raver. That means keep everything "upbeat," instead of "downbeat." It means learn how to enjoy yourself and have a good time—and have it with me!

DON'T be a fashion copy-cat. Dress in your own particular way in the clothes that are best for you. I love daffy, original clothes. The best clothes I've ever seen chicks wear were things they made themselves. I'll dig you if you dig making outasite, one-of-a-kind outfits that really suit you.

BE natural—be yourself. I know it's been said a thousand times, but it can't be said too often—because it's important (important to you and important to me!). Be natural in the way you act and be natural in the way you look—an honest laugh and long hair blowing in the wind.

BE absolutely mad about travel, cos when I find you—and I've been looking for you for a long time—I'm not going to let you out of my sight. And since I have to travel a great deal, that means you will have to travel with me!

LAUGH—and laugh often. Have a sense of humor. I can't stand "sour-pusses." There are so many funny things happening around us all the time that it's a shame not to pick up on them and enjoy them. So cultivate your funnybone.

DON'T be possessive. I couldn't love a girl who hung on to me or wanted to know where I was all the time. And that's true of every guy I know.

DO be trusting, however. Trust me in every way. Know that I will never lie to you or hurt you, so never doubt me. Trust is the foundation of love—without it you're just not with it.

LOVE children. I am completely gaga about children. I want to have a large family of my own, and I'd love for my wife to want that too.

BE a family person. Be devoted to "togetherness". As you know, I'm close to my own family—and I would like to be close to yours. I would like the family we create together to be the closest, warmest, loving-est of all.

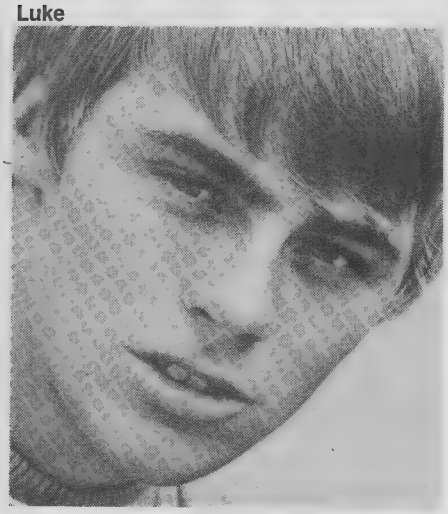
YOU'RE TELLING ME!

FROM GLORIA STAVERS

I want to assure each and every one of you who writes a letter to me at 16 Magazine that your letter is delivered to me personally. I want to assure you too that I read every single letter I receive, that I'm grateful to you for writing to me and that I appreciate every suggestion and criticism you address to me. There isn't enough space in 16 Magazine for me to publish every letter I receive and there isn't enough time for me to answer every letter personally — but please keep writing and look for your letter and my answer each month in You're Telling Me!

Address all of your letters as follows: Miss Gloria Stavers, c/o 16 Magazine, Business Office, 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Luke



Sajid

LUKE LUVVER

Dear Miss Stavers,

Please tell me where I may write to LUKE HALPIN. I have seen him on The Best Of Flipper and he really is triffik!

Nicolette Suto

St. Thomas, V.I.

• Dear Nicolette,

How right you are! You may write to adorable LUKE in care of Ivan Tors Prods., 650 N. Bronson, Los Angeles, Calif.

BEAUTY BUG

Dear Miss Stavers,

I ordered 16's Popularity & Beauty Book and it has turned out to the greatest boost to my morale (not to mention all-round self-improvement) since DAVY JONES! I highly recommend it to all of your readers who long for more teenage happiness!

Nora Weiss

New York City

• Dear Nora,

You are lovely — in every way. All other 16*-ers who are dying to get lovelier, quick turn to Page 13!*

SAJID FOREVER!

Dear Miss Stavers,

Jenny Brune — who wrote that dready letter about our WONDERFUL SAJID KHAN in the Feb. ish — is a PRUNE! I mean, that girl really needs HELP! SAJID, the gem of the Far East, is now a shining star in America's skies. He's talented and gorgeous and we all LOVE him! So there, Jenny. By the way, I have read three different birthdates for SAJID. Which is the correct one?

Frances Dellon

New Orleans, La.

• Dear Frances,

In his very own handwriting, SAJID wrote me that he was born on December 28, 1952 — and that makes him 15 years of age. Thanks for defending him — you were not the only one. I received literally thousands of letters from Sajid-luvvers!!

JAY & TECHNIQUES

Dear Miss Stavers,

Please tell me where to write to JAY & THE TECHNIQUES.

Brenda Frew

Detroit, Mich.

• Dear Brenda,

Here is a pic of J & T's — and you can write to them in care of Smash Records, 35 East Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill.

LOVE! LOVE! LOVE!

Dear Miss Stavers,

It looks like every month you get a

We apologize to the Directors of Achievements Limited and to the authors and artist for unauthorized use in 16's Winter SPEC '67 of material from their book Up The Beatles' Family Tree —copies of which may still be obtained price $1 post free from Achievements Limited, Northgate, Canterbury, Kent, England.

vile HATE letter from a reader – either knocking the MONKEES, SAJID, somebody's hair style or even my beloved 16!

This is a LOVE letter. It is to tell you and your readers how much I love 16 and each and every performer you write about and print pictures of. It is a letter hoping to send out love (instead of hate) vibrations to everyone all over the world – even those who write hate letters. LOVE IS THE WORD AND THE WAY!

Betty Parkinson

Duluth, Minn.

• Dear Betty,

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your beautiful and inspiring letter. You're right, and like they say in the song – "what the world needs now is love, sweet love."

FRANCO NERO

Dear Miss Stavers,

I have gone ker-pow over handsome FRANCO NERO, who plays Sir Lancelot in Camelot. Can you tell me where to write to him?

Larraine Canny

Bronx, New York

• Dear Larraine,

Here is a groovy shot of FRANCO and you can write to him at Warner Bros. Pictures, 4000 Warner Blvd., Burbank, Calif.

TOMMY & BOBBY

Dear Miss Stavers,

I just heard TOMMY BOYCE and BOBBY HART's new A&M single record I Wonder What She's Doing Tonight – and I am now dying to see what they look like!

Kathy Martimer

New York City

• Dear Kathy,

T & B are really astral! Here – take a look at them, and if you care to write to 'em their address is A&M Records, 1416 N. La Brea Ave., Hollywood, Calif. If you mention that you are a 16 reader you will get a prompt reply!

SUPER GIANT PIN-UPS

Dear Miss Stavers,

I'm in "wig city" – I just got my great set of ten huge all-star pin-ups. They are truly perfection! DAVY is almost life-like! Thanks so much!!

Patty Green

Durham, N.C.

• Dear Patty,

It's my pleasure, believe me. Any other all-star-cravers should turn to Page 45 pronto*!*

MISSES DC5

Dear Miss Stavers,

What are my faves – the one and only DC5 – up to these days?

Marian Matton

Chicago, Ill.

• Dear Marian,

DAVE and the 5 have just finished shooting a new series of six-specs which are scheduled to be shown by ATV in England from April on. The very same TV series will be shown in America in color at a later date. The DC5 hope to be back in the States for a tour soon.

LOST IN SPACE-R

Dear Miss Stavers,

I think that ANGELA CARTWRIGHT of Lost In Space is a doll. Where can I write to her?

Bill Spence

Akron, Ohio

• Dear Bill,

Here is a shot of ANGELA as she appears on Lost In Space. You can write to her in care of CBS, TV-City, Hollywood, Calif. Be sure to print "I Am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope!

"JOHN HENRY"

Dear Miss Stavers,

WOW! I've just found out about TOM NARDINI, who plays, "John Henry" on Cowboy In Africa – and I wanta know more! Can you help me?

Terry Heller

Brooklyn, N.Y.

• Dear Terry,

Here's a "help-ful" pic of TOM and you can drop him a line at ABC-TV, Hollywood, Calif.

• Since so many readers wish to join or start fan clubs, here is a list of the national fan clubs of some of the top stars. A few stars have two (sometimes more) national clubs, and in due time we will list these. We will also list local chapters from time to time, and we suggest that fans in local areas contact local club presidents about joining.

To start your own club, or to join a club in your area, write to any of the following national fan clubs for information.

ENCLOSE A SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE FOR A REPLY.

If you wish your fan club to be listed, send complete data — name, address and so on — to FAN CLUB DEPARTMENT, 16 MAGAZINE, 745 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10022. Also enclose a note of authorization from the recognized fan club O.K.-ing you. Or send a sample kit of what you will give members in exchange for dues.

When you write to any of these fan clubs, be sure to put "I Am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope.
